

Who We Are

The Compensation and Benefits Network of Greater St. Louis (CBN) is an organization of human resource professionals active in compensation and benefits which exists to:

- provide a quality local resource for professional growth and enhancement
- advance the compensation and benefits profession

How CBN Can Benefit Your Company

Local and National Best-Practice Sharing

- CBN hosts 5 informational program meetings annually featuring local and national experts
 - Allows members to keep abreast of local, national and global trends and practices
- Members participate in forums, share best practices and connect with one another to draw upon the accumulation of their diverse expertise
- Many challenges companies face are common concerns that have been or are addressed by other companies

Training and Certification Sponsorship

- CBN sponsors 4-6 compensation, benefits, work-life and total rewards seminars annually at substantial discounts
 - Provides value-added information, professional education & opportunities to gain professional certifications
- CBN brings training to St. Louis, which saves members considerable travel costs and time away from the office

Professional development

- CBN publishes a bi-monthly member newsletter which includes summaries of our programs, news about people in the community, trends in total rewards, and more
- CBN members also have access through our enhanced website to members-only resources including program presentations, links to professional groups and our membership directory
- Members may further develop professionally by participating in and/or leading one of our various committees

Many of our members are leaders in the field and represent major organizations in the Metropolitan St. Louis area. Most members find that CBN proves to be one of their most valuable resources.

CBN Membership

The per-person annual professional membership fee of $150.00 includes pre-paid attendance for our five program meetings, and helps us offset costs while maintaining our current programs and services. The value of membership far exceeds the nominal cost. If you have any questions or wish to consider membership, please contact us: phone (314) 286-3951 or email: info@cbn-stl.org.
